Copies of the report with reviews of the Heads of Depts & the important newspapers.
That is a total of 900 copies will have to be printed if the proposal of the Registrar is accepted. In addition he wishes to be supplied with 500 spare copies of the first review in English - why it is wanted is not stated.†
Kindly let us know the no of copies required of the Kannada Memorandum - (which is a Kannada translation of the Departmental report) now under print is not stated but 1000 copies of the Kannada translation of the review is wanted - why so many copies are required is not given out.
There are at present 500 Societies - not all of them require to be supplied with English copies of the report as most Societies in rural areas can only be composed of men conversant with Kannada only.
